Officer Reports

Secretary: None

Treasurer: The 2010 membership cards are now available. New members who sign up after September get a 2009 badge and a 2010 badge for the price of one year - $20.

Safety & Training: The club conducted a Basic Pistol Class on October 10th & 11th, with 4 students attending. This is the first class under the new rules for reservations and deposits for our classes. There will be a Basic Personal Protection in the Home course in November, and a Turkey Shoot on November 21st. It will be conducted with the NRA sporting rifle format. There will be a regular sporting rifle class and an "unlimited" class for advanced shooters, or shooters with rifles that do not meeting the requirements of the sporting rifle class, including air guns and .17 HMR. Prizes will be awarded in each class.

Old Business

None

New Business

On October 14th at noon, Mayor Nickels instituted a ban on concealed pistols in certain public areas in the City of Seattle. The Superintendent of Parks has the authority to post any public venue. Violators will be asked to leave the premises. The 2nd Amendment Foundation is filing suit in response.

November's club meeting will feature nomination of officers for 2010. Any one can nominate themselves for the office of President, Vice-President, Secretary or Treasurer. Per the club constitution, the Treasurer must be a current, direct Boeing employee. All other positions can be filled by retirees, etc. Also per the constitution, voting members, i.e. members wishing to vote for the officer slate at the December meeting, must be NRA members as well as BEEGC club members. Officers are allowed to serve two consecutive terms in an office, after which they must step down from that office. None of the current officers are term limited, however the Secretary has expressed a desire to step down at the end of 2009 for personal and professional reasons.

Show & Tell:

Wayne showed an original 1851 Colt black powder pistol that has been in his family for many years. He plans on restoring it to shooting condition.

Raffle:

In order to generate some funds to donate to worthy gun related causes like the Boy Scouts, 4-H rifle teams, etc., the Board has decided to hold a raffle at the end of each meeting. A small shooting related item will be offered, with tickets costing $1.00 each. This month's items were 2 100 round boxes of CCI 22 Long Rifle ammunition. A raffle ticket was pulled for each box. Congratulations to the winners!

The next club meeting will be on November 11th at 5:30 pm at Sam's Gun Shop & Range.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:30 pm.
