General discussion:

There was general discussion on the sorry state of the country with respect to “gun control.” Jeff Coder urged people to get trained, specifically the Armed Defense Training Association (ADTA). Their next event is next Wednesday, March 28. See their web site (ArmedDefense.org) for time, place and more detail.

Show and Tell:

We had an old, rusty rolling block rifle displayed as well as the results of customizing a Kydex holster with a heat gun to fit a long 1911 pistol.

Meeting adjourned about 6:15 PM

Respectfully submitted
Fred Crary, Secretary
