Budget:

We had intended to have a business meeting to discuss the budget. Without the treasurer, we were unable to get current figures for some of the projections. The webmaster/secretary was able to provide the costs for renewing the web site: $471.25 for 3 years. The new expiration date will be in February 2024.

General discussion:

There was a general discussion among the attendees about the (lack of) ammunition, powder and primer availability. The subject of gun shows yielded a web site listing gun shows: gunshowtrader.com.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:10 PM.

Respectfully submitted
Fred Crary, Secretary
